

Town
and Village of Oakfield

There is a map of the Town of Oakfield on the next page.
The numbers on the map mark the location of the cemeteries.

On the following pages the name or names of the cemetery are listed with the number corresponding to the location on the map.

TOWN OF OAKFIELD

CEMETERIES

Town of Oakfield's location in Genesee County

Established on April 11, 1842

TOWN AND VILLAGE OF OAKFIELD

4

East Oakfield Cemetery (North East Burial Ground)

Southeast of Fisher Road and Lockport Road intersection

Incorporated cemetery

First burial: 1816

GCHD

1

Reed Cemetery (Judge Road Cemetery)

North side of Judge Road, 1/8th mile west of Hutton Road

Incorporated active cemetery

First burial: c. 1835

GCHD

3

St. Cecilia's Catholic Church

Northwest corner of Maple Avenue and Duck Pond Road intersection: a new plot has been purchased and the cemetery will be expanded.

Religious active cemetery

2

Cary Cemetery (Col. Alfred Cary Cemetery, Old Oakfield Cemetery)

Northeast corner of Maple Avenue and Duck Pond Road intersection

Incorporated active cemetery

First burial: 1820

GCHD

5

Burial Plot (Oakfield-Elba Townline Road Cemetery)

Southwest side of Rt. 63, 1/4 mile south of Fisher Road intersection

Abandoned - Only 2 stones and these have been removed. Those were for Gideon Dunham and his wife. GCHD

IN MEMORIAM

BENJAMIN CASPER

BORN

May 19, 1842,

DIED

May 10, 1912.

Father, thou hast left us
And thy loss we deeply feel,
But the God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Rest, father, till Gabriel's trump
Shall wake thy sleeping dust;
Then Immortality put on
And dwell among the just.

Thy Saviour shall thy life restore
And raise thee from thy dark abode;
Thy flesh and soul shall part no more,
But dwell forever near thy God.

MEMORIAL CARDS

Memorial Cards such as this were often handed out at funerals around the turn of the 20th century.

OBITUARY OF BENJAMIN CASPER

Civil War Veteran of Oakfield Died From Paralysis, Aged 71

Oakfield, May 11, 1912 - Benjamin Casper, a Civil War veteran, died yesterday afternoon at his home, the L. L. Reed tenant house on the Hutton road, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis which he suffered on May 1st.

Mr. Casper was born in Germany on May 19, 1841, and came to the United States when a young man. He first located in Alabama, but had been a resident of Oakfield twenty years. He was twice married, the second time to Miss May Brininstool of Alabama, who survives him with three sons, Joseph of Alabama and James and John of Oakfield; three daughters, Mrs. Charles Snyder of Buffalo, Mrs. Hiram Sumeriski of Alabama and Miss Mary Casper of Oakfield, and 11 grandchildren.

The funeral will be from the house at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and the burial will be in the Reed cemetery.