

St. James's Episcopal Church of Newtown was erected in 1734 and obtained a charter of incorporation from Governor Colden on the 9th of September 1761.

The persons named in the charter as wardens, are James Hazard and Richard Alsop; and for vestrymen, Samuel Moore, Jacob Blackwell, William Hazard, Jacob Hallet, Richard Alsop the fourth and William Sacket the third. This church was originally united with those of Jamaica and Flushing and enjoyed for many years the services of the same ministers in rotation.
