

FRANKLIN COUNTY, ALABAMA

Contributed by Mrs. William Burgess Mahan and James Edwards Wilson, Jr.

HESTER

Directions to Cemetery: Follow Alabama Highway 24 west to Mt. Zion Church. Turn right (north) and follow the left hand road for 1.3 miles. There are two graves in two iron fences on the right of road. One grave is marked.

HUDSON HESTER

Born

Sept. 5, 1833

Died

Feb. 14, 1866

Erected by R.M. Hester

(The traditional story is that these 2 people died of small pox and were buried away from all others to avoid spreading the disease).

FRANKLIN COUNTY, ALABAMA

Contributed by Mrs. W. Burgess Mahan, Rt. 7 Wilson Blvd., Russellville, Alabama 35653

Location: About 6 1/2 miles east of Russellville on Alabama Highway #24, near the Waco Community.

Grave can be seen, in the yard of Roy B. Davis, from the south side of the Road.

Note: (People in the community state that in years past other graves were around this one. This is the only one left in the old cemetery).

ELDER

THEO. SKINNER

Died

May 12, 1845

in the 65th. year of his age

We part to meet again.